Foreword

The modern world has much to offer the youth standing on the threshold of responsibility as adults. The high school students of today have endless opportunities and our chances for success are bright; but better futures are formed by a strong building-block--the past.

As each of us takes these important steps to maturity, he needs the crutch of his earlier experiences. The high school years compose a greater part of that crutch for during this period of our lives, thinking is highly developed and patterned. All that we have learned and all those wonderful incidents need to be recalled and cherished so that our climb to adulthood will be safe and sure.

We, the staff of the 1967 TAR-BO-RAH, sincerely hope that this, our yearbook, will provide that challenge and inspiration needed to succeed at this business called life.

Mrs. Margaret L. Ruffin

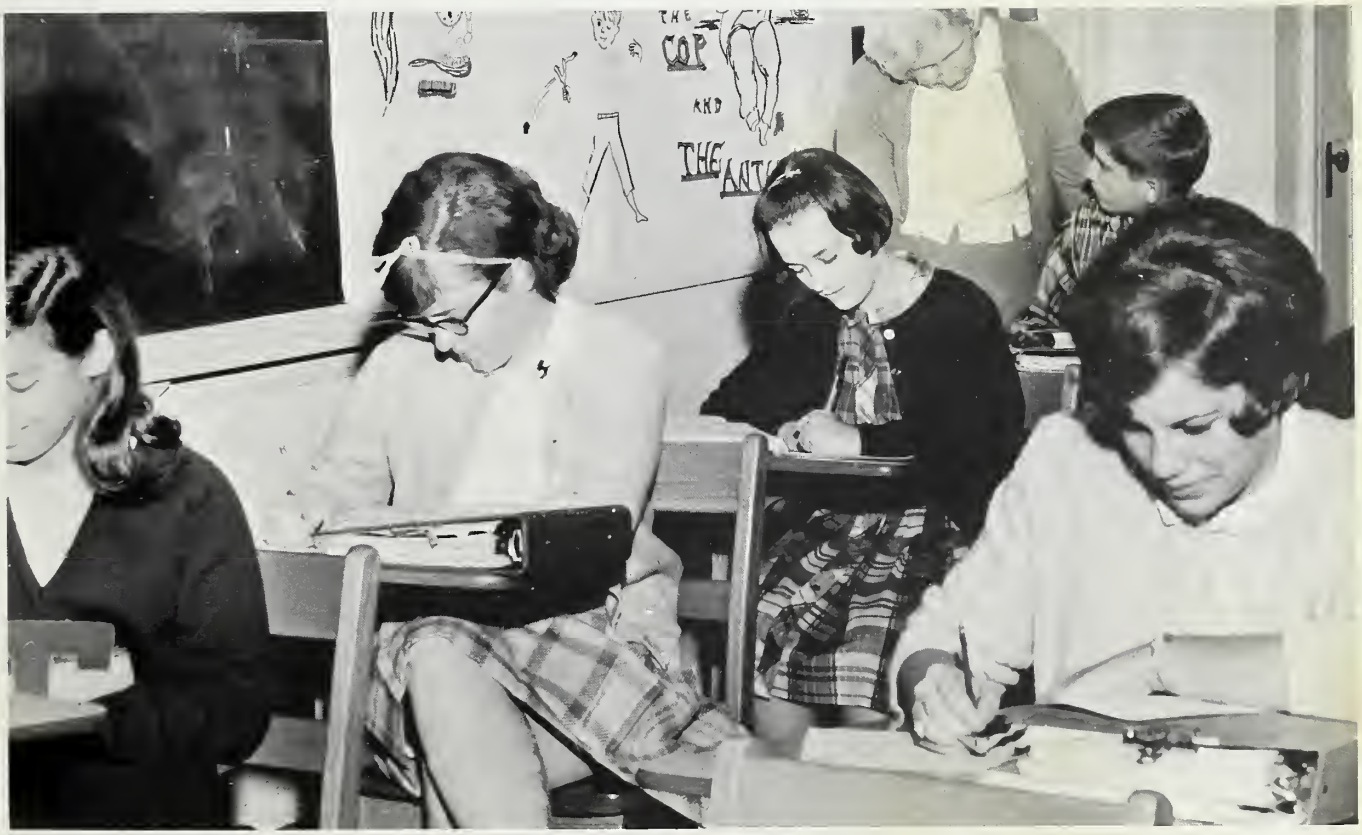
Our Dedication

The staff of the 1967 TAR-BO-RAH recognizes an outstanding member of the Tarboro High School faculty for her lasting contributions as an educator and as a person.

This individual embodies all we feel admirable in a fellow human being. Kindness, intelligence, dignity, service to others, strength, understanding, and devotion are just a few of the traits which enable her to excel in her profession and in our community.

At Tarboro High School she helps guide the seniors as one of their homeroom teachers. Her most important contribution, however, is in the classroom. Her field is an important one; for only with a strong foundation in English can we ascend the world's ladder of success or even approach it. Although she can lovingly and skillfully instruct only a few students, she reaches hundreds of people through them. The minds that she has greatly helped to mold are in turn leading and working for others all about us everyday.

Therefore; for her lasting, but often unknown contribution to our annual staff; for her devotion to our school; and for her service to humanity; we the staff of the 1967 TAR-BO-RAH dedicate this, our yearbook, to Mrs. Margaret Ruffin.



This Makes THS Go 'Round

"Who goes to Campbell?"

"So this is High School!"

Pressure!

Are great!

"Who said so?"

The absent-minded professor.

"Hey, I'm a Senior!"

Faculty

Administration & Curriculum

Through the hard and diligent work of Bruce Russell, Polly Brown, Woody Livesay, Tom Grainger, Dail Holderness, and Bobby Anderson (not pictured), who compose the School Board, our school grows and prospers.

Our fine school system owes much to our never tiring Superintendent, Mr. Martin.

Mr. Tom Grainger, chairman of the local school board, is the guiding light for the administration.

Tarboro High School is very lucky and priviledged to have such a devoted principal, Mr. O. H. Forrest. He received his A.B. and M.A. degrees from East Carolina and has done graduate work at U.N.C. Mr. Forrest has dedicated much time and work to the development of our fine school.

Tarboro High School has a very capable and understanding counselor, Miss Grace Whitehurst. THS students really appreciate the interest that she shows for each student.

Keeping school budget records, typing the daily announcements, and filing the teacher's mail are only a few of the laborious jobs of our secretary, Miss Barbara Smith.

Joe Keel, Donald Cooper, Walter Dew, Walter Anderson, Barry Hudson, Thurman Webb, Ernest James, and William Johnson, compose THS's bus drivers for this year.

Elizata Jones, Tillie Williams, Martha Pettaway, Eva Jones, and Ruby Wooten, under the direction of Mrs. Wilson, prepare our hot and wholesome lunches for THS students every school day.

English – The Means

"Have you ever had one of those days?"

English is the subject in which each student is given the chance to express himself effectively. He learns to do this by studying the works of great writers in literature and by concentrating on proper usage of the language in the grammar section of study.

"Now Virginia, 500 times-- I must not chew gum in class."

Of Understanding

Mrs. Harris: "You think its funny, huh?"

Since the skills taught in English are essential for the comprehensive study of other subjects, it is recognized as one of the most important courses in high school. The ability to communicate, which is mastered in English, is also of the utmost importance in pursuing a career and in meeting the experiences of everyday life.

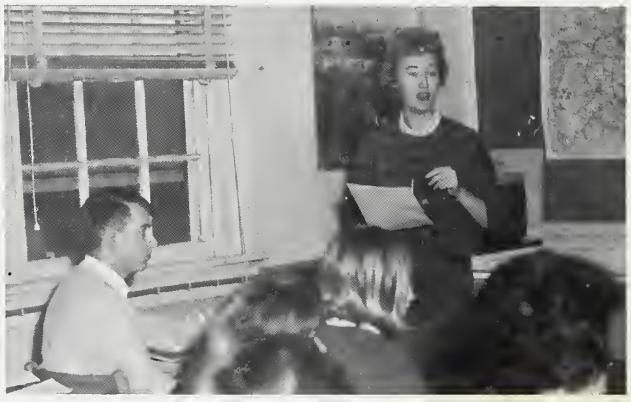
Richard begins his research two periods before the deadline.

Foreign Languages

The two year Latin course taught by Mrs. Morse, gives the student an opportunity to study Roman culture--its mythology, heroes, and way of life, as well as its language.

In the colorful French room, decorated with posters and pictures of France, French students struggle with their "r's". In addition to practice in speech, the course is planned to give the student the ability to understand both written and spoken French.

French II student Ella Ann Smith ponders the meaning of "bonjour"



Richard: "When is that bell going to ring?"

Mrs. Morse: "Why don't you like Julius?"

Distributive Education

In Distributive Education, students with a real interest in distributive business have the chance to learn the necessary abilities required in this field and to practice them in part-time employment.

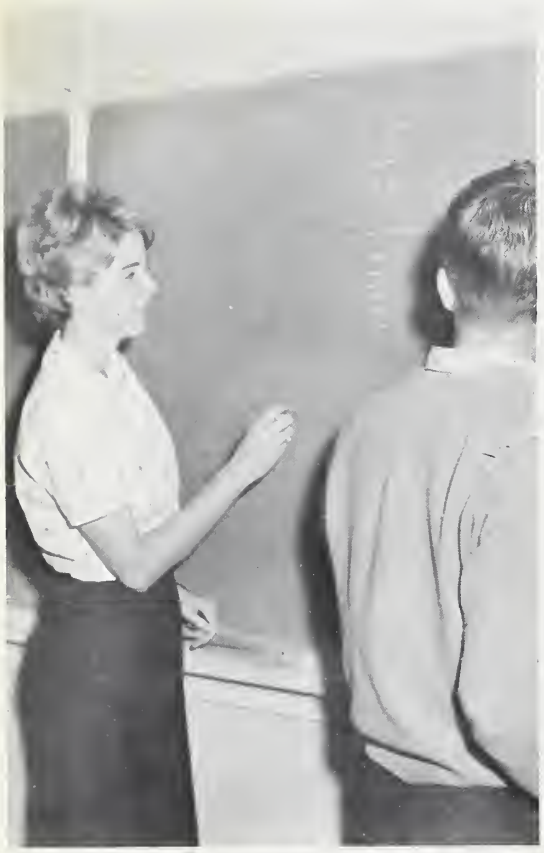
Melvin: "How do you get out of here?"

In this way, students can earn money while preparing themselves for a career. In becoming competent in their work, D.E. students also acquire habits which are necessary in getting along with other people.

Mr. Spencer shows his D.E. students how to be pleasant.

A double strawberry-chocolate fudge cream...

What happens when Mrs. Forrest leaves during a test?



Mrs. Brinson gets a little help from a brilliant student.

"Now I've told you a hundred times: 2+2=5."

Of Business And Science

The absorbing and sometimes very mysterious world of numbers and their symbols is explored in the math department. It is always amazing that those terrible problems near the end of the book are actually solvable. And eventually even the most complicated equations are at least readable. With these cheerful thoughts in mind, math students work diligently to master this subject which is both practical and stimulating.

Geroge and Mrs. Price engage in a friendly game of tug-o'-war.

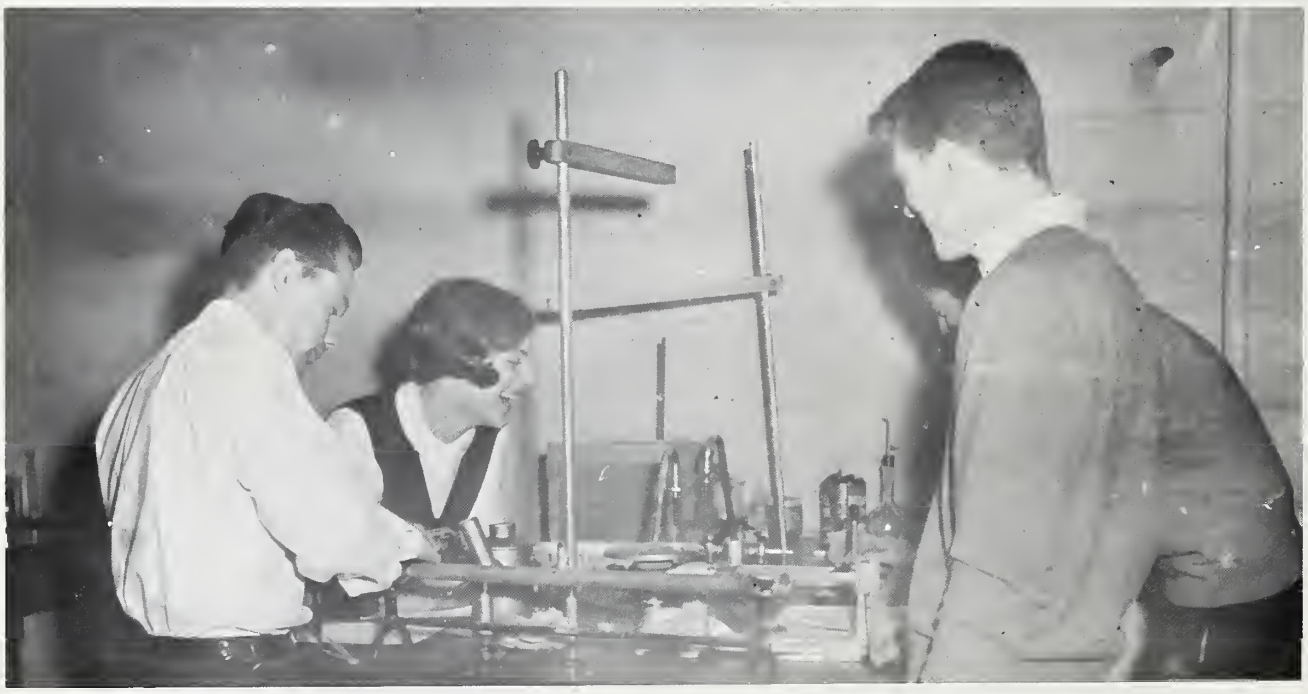
Ralph has trouble getting a ball on the Christmas tree.

"One more word out of you, and I'll..."

Cathy: "I'm afraid to look."

Freshmen enthralled by Mrs. McNairs explanations..the annual leaf collection by the sophomores...the much-dreaded dissection which is not so horrible after all...drawers in lab which never contain what they should ...

The Science department at THS is well-equipped to aid the students of science, biology, chemistry, or physics. By means of frequent lab practice, actual experience is combined with the knowledge gained in class. This result in a comprehensive study of a particular branch of science which can be of great benefit to the college-bound student.



Nancy: "I think my pencil just went down the drain."

To Stimulate Thought

"Aren't we 'purty'?"

Louis anxiously watches Parker's experiment.

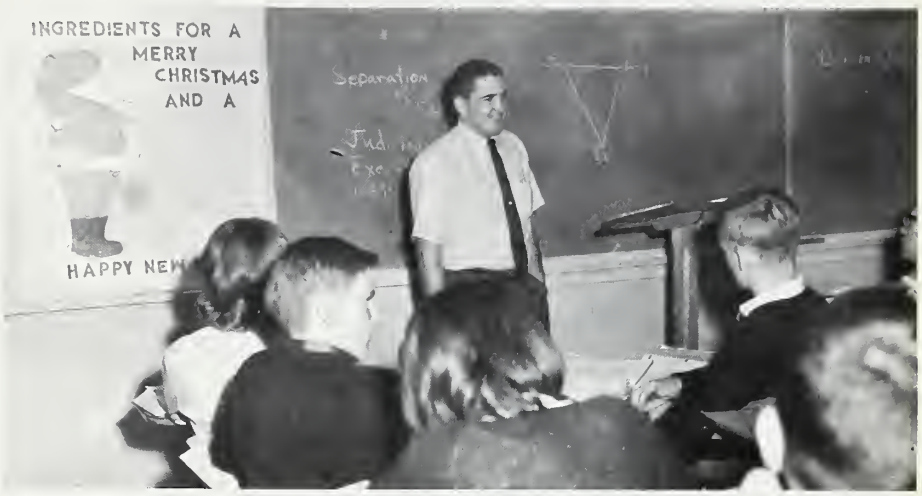
Billy: "I think Dagwood's in trouble."

Places, dates, and famous names are only a few of the things offered in this department. Although these dull bits of information are the necessary backbone of any course in social studies, it is their application to modern life that makes social studies so interesting. With the aid of maps, films, and stimulating teachers, dull pages are transformed into exciting tales of drama. The study of other times and places is also valuable in understanding both our government and the customs of other peoples.

Mrs. Cobb: "Who wants to jump first?"

Past And Present

"When Jud gets the ball,
Leg breaks for the basket."



Is someone planning a trip?

Business – Application of Knowledge

Happiness is--a typing class--would you believe...?

This department offers students interested in pursuing a business career the opportunity to develop skills which are essential to efficient businessmen and women. Thus most students gain a knowledge of typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping with an eye on a future business career.

"Dear Ann Landers, I have a problem..."

Mrs. Dean: "Now let's play a guessing game.

Physical Education

"Spider-Walk"

"Swimmers take your mark ...!"

The gym floor crowded with screaming girls...rapt faces in a health class...exhaustion after the 50 yd. dash...

The main purpose of this department is the building of sound physical health. Freshmen are taught the fundamentals involved in maintaining a healthy body. In gym classes, a variety of skills are practiced. At the end of his senior year, the THS student has some proficiency in everything from volleyball to shuffleboard. In addition to these activities, students participate in physical fitness tests taken at intervals throughout the year.

"Where the action is." the gym?

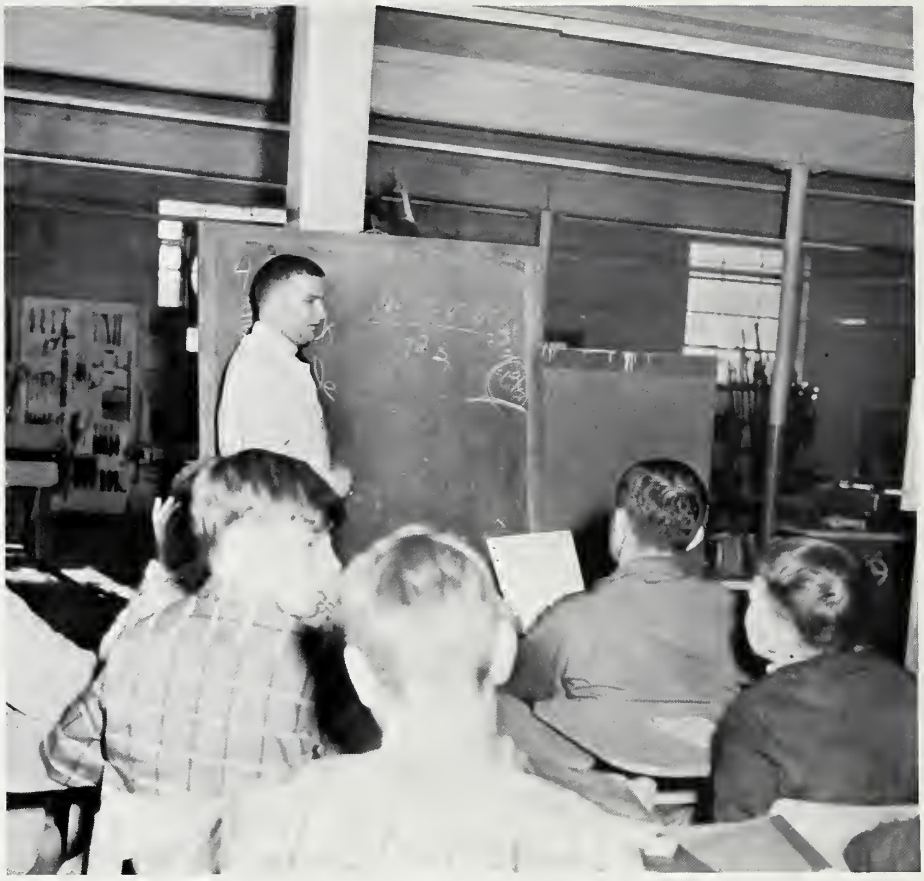
Library Science

Under the able teaching of Miss Nichols, Library Science students learn the fascinating language of the library - the Dewey Decimal system. By managing the library under Miss Nichols' supervision, these students also become adapt to maintaining silence.

Linda is overjoyed at the results of a test.

Industrial Arts

In this growing department of industrial arts and mechanical drawing, a wide variety of skills are taught and practiced. The interested student can discover in this department the answer to his questions concerning industry as a possible career choice. Here also students learn the safe methods of using shop machines and tools.



These boys enjoy their class with Mr. Whitehurst.

Bobby Knox: "Now David, don't forget that this is my skateboard.

Mr. Everett shows Marshall Beach where he went wrong.

Home Economics

In the "Home Ec" cottage, girls with an eye on their future roles as the homemakers of tomorrow, gain valuable experience in serving, cooking, child-care, and interior decorating.

Family living is also studied providing insight into the problems and pleasures of creating a home.

Beverly: "I think my contact fell somewhere in here."

Debby: "Why didn't I think of that?"

Senior Class

Class Officers

President - Bruce Purvis
Vice-President - Bo Carpenter
Treasurer - Beth Palmer
Secretary - Chris Fecho

Outstanding Senior
Edward Dean Roberson, FFF

Edward Roberson is an energetic member of the senior class. Edward is President of the Student Council and spends many hours developing plans to improve our school. He is a versatile student. Edward is a member of the French Club and the Pep Club. He was treasurer of the Pep Club as a junior and served as the president of his sophomore class. Edward is circulation manager of the 1967 Tar-bo-rah. He has played football for four years and is a member of the Monogram Club. Edward was voted "Most Popular."

Outstanding Senior

Linda Faye Bryant

Linda Bryant is one of Tarboro High School's active seniors. She was a Junior-Senior waitress, she serves as chief marshal, and she acts as President of the National Honor Society. Linda was honored when selected as a runner-up in a National English Merit Contest this fall. She has also been nominated for a Reynolds scholarship. Linda attended Girls' State, and is a feature writer for our newspaper, and a member of the Future Teachers of America. Linda is the co-editor of the 1967 Tar-bo-rah. She was voted "Most Studious."

Outstanding Senior

Linda Parker Creech

Linda Creech is the editor of the 1967 Tar-bo-rah and has spent countless hours working to make this our best annual yet. She also helped create last year's annual as the sophomore class editor. Linda is active in all other phases of student life. She is a member of the Pep Club. Linda is also a versatile student. She was treasurer of her junior class and served as a sophomore student council representative. This fall Linda was the Science Club candidate for homecoming queen.

Outstanding Senior

Alan Wynn Cooper

Alan Cooper is one of the busiest people at Tarboro High School. He is the business manager of this year's Tar-bo-rah and works hard trying to keep the books balanced. Alan also serves as the newspaper staffs roving reporter. He is a member of the Future Teachers of America, the Pep Club, the French Club, the Science Club, and the Key Club. He was the Future Teachers of America's sergeant at arms as a sophomore and is the current secretary-treasurer of the Key Club. Alan is a good student - a member of the National Honor Society and a nominee for an Angier B. Duke scholarship. He attended Governor's School in English last summer in Winston-Salem.

Outstanding Senior

Jacquelyn Frances Bartholomew

Jackie Bartholomew is a bubbling member of the senior class. She is an excellent student and a member of the National Honor Society. She is also active in the French Club, Future Teachers of America, and the Science Club. Jackie has served as a cheerleader for four years while attending Tarboro High School. She is an honorary member of the Pep Club and is a member of the Monogram Club. Last year she was vice-president of the Student Council and acts as secretary this year. She was also voted the "Friendliest" member of the senior class.

Outstanding Senior

Mary Earle Nettles

Mary Earle Nettles is a hard-working senior. She is the editor of our school newspaper and works hard making our issues enjoyable. Mary Earle is also outstanding in the classroom: she was a Junior-Senior waitress, she serves as a marshal, and she is a member of the National Honor Society. Mary Earle was treasurer of her sophomore class. She is a member of the Future Teachers of America, the French Club, the Science Club, and the Pep Club. Mary Earle was voted "Most Likely to Succeed".

Outstanding Senior

Bruce Lee Purvis

Bruce Purvis is quite a hustler. His amazing vitality can be seen not only on the football field, where he helped captain our Tigers to victory, but also in all other phases of student life. Bruce is president of the senior class, and this duty takes up quite a bit of his time. He worked on the sports section of our 1967 Tar-bo-rah, and he is active in other clubs at Tarboro High School; Bruce is also a whiz in the classroom - he was honored when nominated for a Morehead Scholarship last fall.

Outstanding Senior

Mary Morrison Pennington

Mary Morrison has really been an asset to Tarboro High School during her four years here. She is in the National Honor Society and also serves as a marshal. She is co-chief of the varsity cheerleaders, serves as French Club president, and is a member of the Annual Staff. Mary Morrison is also active in most of the other clubs at Tarboro High School. She was voted Junior Class Princess and "Most Talented Senior Girl" by her classmates. Last fall she was honored when selected by the Daughters of the American Revolution as their good citizen. This is quite an honor and a well-deserved one.

Outstanding Senior

Nancy Neaves Smoot

Nancy Smoot is truly an outstanding student and an outstanding citizen. She is a member of the National Honor Society; she is a marshal; and her name is always found on the honor roll or principal's list. The vivacious Nancy is chief varsity cheerleader, and she headed the junior varsity squad as a sophomore. She is active in the French Club, the Future Teachers of America, and various other organizations at Tarboro High School. Nancy is also on the West Tarboro Youth Council and is admired for service to her church. Her dynamic personality won for her the title of "Most Popular".

Outstanding Senior

Louis Wiley Perry, Jr.

"Bucky" is another one of Tarboro High School's senior dynamos. All during football season, fans could watch number "44" brilliantly display his talents. He helped captain the Tigers last fall, and he was placed on the All-State Team. Bucky also plays basketball and baseball well. His keenness of mind and willingness to work have won him respect in the classroom as well as on the playing field where his ability enabled him to be voted "Most Athletic".

Student Life

One Step from youth to maturity

Bill Anderson and Crystal Coker were 1966 Mascots.

Graduation

Now we are seniors. Soon we shall be stepping out of adolescence into a world of new ideas. We shall never again be under the guiding care of home and school. We then shall graduate into an ever growing maturity in life.

Mr. Martin, Superintendent of Tarboro schools, is a key factor in Commencement exercises at Tarboro High--other than handing out diplomas.

Jr-Sr, Climax To A Perfect Year

Summer Fun

The town pool cooled off many people this summer. Janet Rawls seems to enjoy it.

Seniors riding high!! The beach wasn't the same after they left.

The Varsity Cheerleaders show loyal obedience to the Tiger, Chris Fecho, a great asset to the squad.

1966 Marshalls

Girls' State

Martha Taylor, Nancy Smoot, and Linda Bryant were chosen by the faculty to attend Girls' State, a week-long summer conference sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Boys' State

Bruce Purvis, Bo Carpenter, and Dennis Sullivan were chosen to attend Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion.

1967 Mascots

Miss Cindy Brown and Mr. Denson Westbrook are the '67 mascots for the senior class. We are very proud of these two and are looking forward to spending much of this year with them.

Back to school again.."Tuff" habit to break.

A place to watch everyone else eat...

...Or to do as Check does.

Lunch Room Means Many Things To Many People

Anything Goes

All sorts of things are done at T. H. S. Here are a few that we enjoy most.

Talent Show--Open mouthed, that's "The Camerons" alright.

Working on Junior-Senior--Uh, Tom? Maybe you'd better try turning around.

Bonfires--T. H. S. held Bonfires that really roused the pep for the mighty Tigers.

Of course, there are things we naturally take part in--for learning, fun, or just being ourselves.

Here Jackie is learning how to roll down the car window (?)

EASTERN, AAA CHAMPS 1965

Speaks for itself.

Fun--Here I come Billy!!

Bruce: "Now if Mr. Alexander'll just keep looking at the 'backs'..."

Homecoming is Highlight Of The Year

Homecoming was the time for everyone at Tarboro High. Even the Freshmen knew what was going on. All were looking forward to that day, the parade, and that night --when T.H.S. crowned the Homecoming Queen for 1966, Linda Conner.

Members of the Queen's Court are: BACK ROW - N. R. Nettles, D. Brown, L. Mears, M. Taylor, L. Creech, J. Keel, N. Smoot, B. Palmer, C. Fecho, C. Vick, C. Rose, FRONT ROW - S. Pollard, V. Umphlet, M. E. Nettles, G. Robbins, M. M. Pennington, L. Connor, B. J. Wells, L. Brewer, J. Bartholomew, and G. Flemming. Not pictured are J. Rawls, E. J. Anderson.

Golden Days

Football was tops again this year for the blue and gold team. The mighty Tigers wound up the best season in years with a nine and one record.

"Rip 'em up, Tear 'em up..."

"Go Honey!"

"Hey, did you see that girl over there on the 20 yard line!"

Of Fall Football

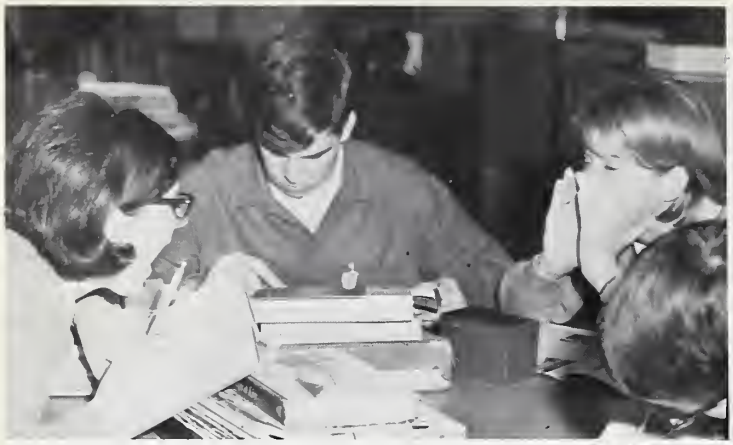
That record made T. H. S. proud to be in the Northeastern 3-A Conference. And the best part about that, is that we're number 1.

1-and-a-2-and-a- Ring, Ring, Ring, Ring.

#1 COACH
Mr. Alexander

Everyone looked forward to the ever-popular sock hops.

Interests At



...And you know that little road where... Well, ask Billy.

What a lab!

"The Scag", alias Linda Mears, I'm sure has many friends. Of course, Ban may help.

Er--uh--Would you believe?
- I didn't think so.

Butch Manz eagerly rushes to help Marsha Davis fix her shoe.

Charlotte Vick--Our new Demolay Sweetheart.

This is our #1 team. Aren't they the best "lookin'" shirts you've ever seen? We think so?

THS On Parade

Homecoming gives T. H. S. a chance to really show off its talents. Be it beauty or what-have-you, participants are never lacking. They just force themselves to get out of school early and miss all those wonderful classes just to be in the parade.

First of all you have to ask Danny Worrells and Parker Creech what they think about building the floats.

Martha Millard was chosen to be the Optimist Club Typical Youth at Tarboro High.

Charlotte Vick and Alan Cooper represented T.H.S. at Governor's School, a summer program of accelerated study for gifted students.

Mary Morrison Pennington was chosen to represent Tarboro High as the D.A.R. Good Citizen by the students and faculty.

One of the greatest honors a student can have is to be inducted into the National Honor Society.

The West Tarboro Youth Council sponsored by the Tarboro Recreation Department and headed by Mr. Brent Braswell (lower left), is made up of J. Howard, D. Stroup, B. Bonner, N. Smoot, President; G. Carpenter, C. Webb, E. Guill, and T. Beasley. Not pictured are B. Knox, K. Jackson, P. Burke, T. Pearce, and D. Brown.

Mr. Martin, "Tell us a little of your Alma Mater."

The Monogram Club made good of their float--and enjoyed every minute of it!

Bo Carpenter introduces the T.H.S. '66-'67 basketball team.

Hall life at T.H.S. is at it's best--especially when pictures are being taken.

At Play

These are students chosen on the basis of scholarship as waiters and waitresses at the 1966 Junior-Senior, theme being "The Sound of Music".

Mike's car has been through a lot. But it's still "Old Faithful" to these girls.

...And the dog said, "Bow-Wow."

Beginning of a Winning Season

After the first full week of practice, Tarboro's Football Team was called an "If" team by those that are supposed to know. Could the Tigers match the Cinderella Team of 1965?

There were many question marks against the Tigers before they had a chance to prove themselves. The Tigers would be tough, "if our linemen come around, if we have no injuries, and if our defense jells", according to Coach Alexander. Tarboro's perennial problems, a lack of depth and a poor passing defense, were dragged out again with a general air of pessimism.

The strongest point in Tarboro's favor was an explosive backfield. Blessed with speed and a combination of power and finesse, the backs blended perfectly into Alexander's free-lance offensive attack. Any one of them was capable of scoring from any position on the field, - and did so throughout the season.

But the line must be given part credit for the explosiveness of the Tiger offense. At first considered the weaker link in Tarboro's hopes for a repeat of the previous season, it proved itself able to move bigger opponents in game after game. As the season progressed, a unified line and backfield was able to average 24 points per game won compared to the opponents 12.

Coupled with this volatile offense was a defense that could hold anyone when it had to. It seemed that the Tigers would allow an opponent to do as much damage as possible and would then clamp down on the unsuspecting victim. Exemplary of this was the Wilson game; Tarboro would allow the Cyclones to move up and down the field, but at the goal line, the Tigers rose up and prevented all but one touchdown.

Ironically, through a quirk in the conference rulings, Tarboro, with the best (9-1) record in the Eastern 3A Conference, was unable to take another shot at the conference championship. But surely this team had nothing to be ashamed of.

Bucky Perry, an explosive runner all year, was one of T. H. S.'s stronger backs.

TARBORO 14 - ELIZABETH CITY 6

Tarboro opened its conference schedule with a hard-fought 14-6 victory over the Elizabeth City Yellow Jackets. This game proved to be the most evenly matched for the Tigers during the entire season. Though Tarboro had only a 16 yard advantage in total rushing, field position helped the Tigers to score first in the second quarter and move ahead for good in the fourth.

This game proved to be a defensive struggle. After a shaky first half, the Tarboro defense stiffened and allowed no more scores.

Mike Caldwell decides to keep on a quarterback option and nearly scores.

TARBORO 26 - JORDAN 6

In their first game of the season, the Tarboro Tigers, despite being handicapped by penalties and ragged play in the first half, dominated the Jordan Falcons to take a 26-6 non-conference victory. Leading by only 7-6 at the half, the Tigers began to move, scoring on their first possession after the second half kick-off.

Indicative of following games was the inability of the Tarboro squad to do much early in the game leading to the Tiger reputation of being a "second-half" team.

Alex Hargrove fraternizes with several of his "new-found friends."

TARBORO 14 - W. CARTERET 7

The Tarboro Tigers gave away a touchdown on the opening seconds of the game, then lost the ball on three fumbles and a pass interception, and still managed to win on a 92 yard scoring drive that ended with less than a minute left in the game.

Although the Tiger offense made several long runs, they were only able to score two touchdowns because of penalties. One of these was a 90 yard punt return, the only one of the entire Tarboro season.

The Tarboro defensive team saved the game - five times it rose up to stop the Patriots in crucial situations, the last coming after the final Tarboro score.

TARBORO 25 - KINSTON 23

Tarboro flashed back from a 13-7 third quarter deficit to score three final quarter touchdowns in seven plays from scrimmage. The Tarboro backs robbed up nearly 300 yards rushing behind powerful blocking by the front line.

Because of the offensive explosiveness of both teams, however, the outcome of the game was in doubt until the last series of plays in which Tarboro ran straight into the line to run out the clock. To stop Kinston on their last series, Tarboro had to block a field goal try with 40 seconds left on the clock.

Though the Tiger defense was weakened by injuries, the offense, a question mark since the Jordan game, came into its own, demonstrating an awesome combination of power and finesse.

Jerry Howard isn't going to stand for any of that tackling mess.

Bo Carpenter relies on finesse and speed rather than brute strength.

TARBORO 38 - GREENVILLE 35

From the personal viewpoint of the player, this victory was probably the most satisfying of the year. Arch-rival Greenville had quickly jumped to a 21-0 first quarter lead and appeared to be running away with a lopsided victory. But the "Tigators" had not "blown their cool" - they were merely making the game more interesting. The offensive line went to work, and the backs unleased a tremendous show of power and speed.

The Tigers scored two quick touchdowns and were on the Greenville 1 yd. line when time ran out in the first half. The deluge continued in the second half, and

TARBORO 0 - WASHINGTON 20

Previously unbeaten Tarboro moved up and down the field at will against the Washington Pam Pack but was unable to carry any drives into the end zone. Taking the game as a whole, the Tigers outplayed Washington offensively and defensively. In the first half alone, Tarboro had four scoring opportunities, driving to the Pam Pack 5, 14, 23, and 17 yard lines. Washington, though scoring twice, once on the opening kick-off, was able to get only three first downs in the same period of time.

Though chiefly a defensive game, all of the backs found the going rough in the Wilson game.

though the Phantoms scored two more T.D.'s, they could not match the Tarboro offense.

Bucky Perry, voted the best defensive player in the conference, teams with Bo Carpenter to stop an Elizabeth City back.

The swarming Tiger defense stopped the Washington running attack cold.

TARBORO 45 - HAVELOCK 12

Tarboro repeated last year's mastery over Havelock as it made shambles of the Rams' Homecoming hopes with a lopsided 45-12 non-conference victory. The Tigers scored on seven out of twelve possessions and had rolled up 19 points before the Rams could score.

Tarboro used little of the deception and finesse so characteristic of past games, simply overpowering Havelock, which was a better team than the score indicated. The Tigers used power plays, quick hand-offs up the middle, a few passes, and it was all over for the Rams. The subs began filtering in during the third quarter and finished the game.

TARBORO 25 - ROANOKE RAPIDS 6

Last year the Tarboro Tigers played their best game against a team that beat them this year. This year the Tigers' best game was against the team that handed Tarboro its only unavenged loss of last season.

The Yellow Jackets of Roanoke Rapids were the unfortunate victims of the Tiger machine - a powerful offense that rolled up over 300 years rushing and a stone wall defense that held the highest scoring team in the conference to six points. In terms of perfect teamwork and unity, this was the Tiger's best game, the first in which both the offensive teams were outstanding in the same game.

Although the score was tied 6-6 at the half, Tarboro broke the game open in the third quarter and shut out the Jackets for the rest of the game.

Quarterback Mike Caldwell is pulled down from behind.

Carpenter's on the move...

Scotty Martin catches another "exciting" shot of Fleming on the move.

...But he is stopped short of the goal.

TARBORO 13 - NEW BERN 7

Tarboro clipped a much-improved New Bern team 13-7 to gain at least a half-conference title. The Bears received the kick-off and scored before the Tiger defense could recover, taking a 7-0 lead. Tarboro came right back going 80 yards on a special play called the "H. H Huddle." The Tigers also moved 91 yards on their next possession to take a 13-7 lead.

The rest of the game became a defensive struggle. Though the Tigers could not push over a third score, they completely dominated play in the second half. New Bern got only two first downs in that half, getting past its own 30 only twice.

Who said winning isn't everything?

TARBORO 14 - WILSON 10

In the final game of the season, the Tarboro Tigers gained a bittersweet victory over neighboring 4-A Wilson. Bitter because the Tigers would not be in the play-offs; sweet because victory always is.

It was feared that Tarboro would not have the drive and determination necessary for winning, since the game had no effect on the conference standings and for much of the game, the players knew that their chance in the play-offs had been lost. But the Tigers showed the pride of a champion, coming through with their ninth victory of the season, Tarboro put up a tremendous running defense and intercepted four passes. The Tigers scored two quick touchdowns to take a 14-3 half-time lead, the Wilson score coming on a 15 yd. field goal.

In the second half Wilson drove repeatedly into Tarboro territory mostly on passes, but was turned aside by the rugged defensive team which held the Cyclones to 53 yard rushing and only one touchdown. The Tigers, hampered by penalties and a big Wilson line, could not push across another score, but 14 points was enough.

The 1967 Tarboro Tigers were not expected to overpower their opponents this year. Considered a "small" team, the squad would have to rely on a tenacious defense and quick running offense. The potential of the team seemed promising; there was a good bench, tremendous shooting and ball-handling ability, and the proper attitude. The first team had a good deal of playing experience, and it was hoped that this would offset the height disadvantage the Tigers would encounter almost every game.

It was also hoped that Tarboro could begin its cage season on a high note and stay there. Predicted to have one of the better teams in the conference, Tarboro lost several early games to markedly less able teams and was seldom able to work as a unit under pressure, one of the crucial points in the offensive attack of a small team.

The most promising feature in this season's basketball future is the improvement of the team after and just before the half-season mark. Tarboro could begin to move in the latter part of the season and be ready by tournament time, a series in which seasonal records are forgotten.

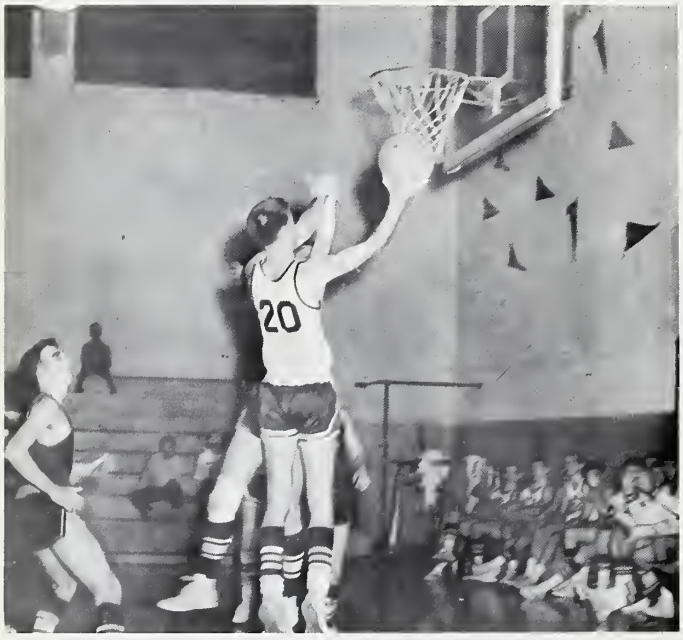
Tarboro took advantage of many Phantom mistakes forced by a tenacious zone defense to take a 53-43 victory from Greenville, the Tigers' first conference win. The teams were evenly matched until the last minute, in which the Tigers blasted to a 12-point lead that the Phantoms could not overcome.

Captain Carpenter goes high to control a jump ball for the Tigers.

An unbelieveably cold six minutes left Tarboro behind the West Carteret Patriots 16-1 - a deficit the Tigers could not overcome. Though Tarboro caught on fire for most of the second half, the game was too far gone. The final score was 74-49, against the Tigers.



Allsbrook holds off his opponent with one hand and scores with the other.

The Kinston Red Devils used a pressing defense and running offense to take complete control of the game with the Tarboro five. Kept off-balance all night, the Tigers never could generate any offensive retaliation and went down 68-46.

To the amazement of No. 41, Beach tries an under-handed, behind-the-backboard hook shot.

McLaughlin scores with a jump shot from just inside the foul line.

After controlling the ball game for more than three quarters, the Tigers fell apart before a determined Roanoke Rapids press and blew a 13-point lead. Tarboro mistakes plus a stretch of cold shooting enabled the Yellow Jackets to come from behind in the last six minutes of the game and take a 1-point victory.

Another cold spell experienced by the Tigers gave the New Bern Bears a chance to tie the game by half-time and to go into a commanding lead in the third quarter. Tarboro Tigers, after dominating most of the first half, found themselves on the short end of a 52-37 score.

Bo Simmons gets the jump on his man and the result is a clear shot from the side.

Beach passes off to Allsbrook, or is he shooting again?

This time it was Tarboro that played catch-up ball, overcoming Elizabeth City leads twice before moving ahead for good. The Tigers were able to avoid getting into one of the cold shooting periods that had plagued the team in previous games. A pressing defense killed any chance of a Yellow Jacket comeback.

Mike Caldwell even has Mr. Howell worried on this shot.

Balanced scoring resulted in Tarboro's second win over the Greenville Phantoms. The Tigers built up substantial leads from the beginning of the game and were leading by 15 points going into the fourth quarter. A furious Phantom rally fell short in the last minute, giving Tarboro a 61-59 victory.

The Tigers had to score big in the first quarter to stay ahead of the Washington Pam Pack, but in the latter half of the game the team had no worries. Tarboro shot its way to a big lead in the fourth quarter and won going away, 64-52. This win gave the team a 4-5 conference record going into the second half of league play.

Perry prepares to dunk the ball and two other players.

Carpenter comes in from the side with a left-handed hook.

The Tarboro Tigers applied tight defensive clamps and broke out the scoring guns in the fourth quarter to beat Havelock 56-49.

The Tigers managed to keep the lead until the last of the third quarter when Havelock rallied to tie the Tigers 41 all. In the fourth quarter the Tigers managed to break that tie and win by seven points.

With a little help from behind, Beach gets control of a loose ball.

Little emphasis is placed on the Tiger Cubs' performance by the average basketball fan, but their play is consistently better than average.

A lack of experience was apparent at the beginning of the season, but the Cubs improved with each game. The squad showed teamwork and basic fundamentals that will be a great asset in the future. The J.V. is a promising team, and should develop into a contender as the future varsity.

Though track in Tarboro High School remains largely unrecognized, it is increasing both in popularity and quality. It will be a good while before track reaches the level of a major sport, but the potential is there and is showing.

Hopefully, the average fan will become aware of track, enabling it to take its proper role in T. H. S. atheletics.

Early conditioning could mean a great deal to Tony and Larry. Both have the ability to reach the state finals.

Tennis

Tom and Marc get in a little pre-season doubles practice. This team could gain high ranking in the conference in the spring matches.

Richard's form teams with Dennis' ego to give a false appearance of ability.

Baseball

Mike Connor was noted for his powerful swing...

Success in baseball is based mainly on a combination of field, hitting, and pitching. A team with only one of these hasn't got a chance.

Tarboro this year will have one - a strong pitching staff. Improvement of the team will depend on the fielding of a questionable infield and the hitting of the overall squad, but Tarboro, like any other team, needs support.

...and when he was at the plate it was all or nothing - a homerun or a strikeout.
